

Virtual Conference of CFOs: Emerging Roles and Dimensions

Background:

The traditional role of CFO who leads an organisation's finance function has expanded tremendously across various functions and today plays the role of a strategic partner in maximizing value creation. The evolution of the CFO's role has embraced a wider range of responsibilities, such as corporate governance, risk management and the maintenance of effective systems of internal control have emerged as essential. Innovations done by the fintechs and the use of advanced technologies have radically disrupted the accounting, financial controls and financial reporting. Globalization of business and convergence of accounting standards globally have also become a challenge.

Objective:

This conference aims to provide a perspective on the changing nature of the finance function and the evolving role of CFOs in the financial sector in today's heightened disclosure and reporting framework of the Regulator. The conference would also deal with some of the traditional but intricate technical issues faced by the CFOs and their teams.

Program Highlights:

The virtual conference will deal with the following topics:

- The program will deal with the following:
- Present day role of CFO: A reflection
- Role of CFO from the regulatory perspective
- New statutes and amendments impacting the functions of CFO
- ESG and Compliance reporting
- Use of Advanced Technologies
